The Answer

One thing leads to another, and since Zero Population Growth (two kids to the family) has won quasi-respectability, free lance writer Ellen Peck is ready to go ZPG one better. Well, that is to say, two less. For as Mrs. Peck explained to The Times Herald's Susan Rutherford the other day, having no children at all is even smarter than having just two.

Interesting idea, we'll have to admit. People is what the population problem is all about, so if you've got no people, you've got no population problem, right? Which certainly will be great for our grandchildren...er, our children? Hmmmm - well, anyway, Mrs. Peck, it certainly sounded like a good idea. - Dallas (Tex.) Times Herald

Chief Justice Awards Degree
May is the month of commencement exercises and the time when college graduates are awarded degrees.

This week the press of the nation which has been going to school in the classroom of experience since the day America was in swaddling clothes also was accorded a degree. BA in the field of criticism.

United States Supreme Court Chief Justice Warren Burger joined hands with Vice President Spiro Agnew in placing the cap of denunciation upon the hapless head of editors. He thus completed tossing the tassel of blame for the court's upon the Fourth Estate and proudly awarded the Bachelor (Burger) of Antagonism (Agnew) to the news media.

The commencement speaker, talking to an association of attorneys which he also verbally slapped, accused the news media of shrilly screaming about situations which he preferred be left alone. The press had been through this many times during its school days. Almost every public figure has at some time handed out a questionnaire to the scribes and reporters. Most of the time the answers have been displeasing to the person in question and it is easy to fault the press.

It has grown so accustomed to tart remarks from Agnew that if the words are not spoken publishers feel they have been remiss in their duties. The castigation from Justice Burger was a bit unusual but has its advantages. After all, if one is to receive a degree it is nice to have it from the top man in the nation's top tribunal.

We accept our BA or AB whichever is convenient, gentlemen. It affords us the privilege of telling it like it is. - Athens (Tenn.) Daily Post-Athenian

Suspect in Truck Theft Held for FBI

A 28 year-old Lockesburg, Ark. man, who was arrested by state police Tuesday, will be turned over to the FBI today in connection with a twin-screw dump truck stolen about two and one-half months ago in Flint, Mich. The man, Gene L. Coulter, was arrested while driving the dump truck on Interstate 30, two miles north of Prescott according to Capt. Milton Mosier of the State Police. Coulter is being held in the Hempstead County jail.

Barbers Complain to Atty. General

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office said Tuesday it could find no law that would prohibit women from cutting the hair of men in beauty shops.

Ross Glover, secretary of the state Board of Barber Examiners, had asked for the opinion, saying his office had received many complaints from barbers wanting the board to stop beauty operators from cutting the hair of men.

He said the complaint arose because men with long hair were favoring beauty operators rather than barbers.

NYC Is Suggested as 51st State

NEW YORK (AP) — Mayor John V. Lindsay has set up a commission to study the efficiency of the state government and to examine the question of the city's becoming the 51st state. At the same time, the state legislature has passed a bill creating a commission to probe the city's operation.

Creation of both commissions Tuesday night climaxed weeks of acrimony between the city and state governments over the city's request for new revenues and appeared to support a growing campaign among some city leaders for statehood. Lindsay said the announcement of a commission "to inquire into the effectiveness and efficiency of the state government" came "after nearly two months of preliminary preparations."

In Albany, the Republican leadership surprised the legislators by suddenly taking up the bill providing for a state investigation of the city.

"We're worried about a city," said Senate Majority Leader Earl W. Brydges of Niagara Falls. "We're watching the gradual deterioration of what was once the greatest city in the world."

With Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in command of Republican majorities in the state Senate and Assembly, the measure was passed over the protests of city Democrats.

Brydges said the state commission could consider the possibility of replacing the strong mayor form of government with a city manager system and dividing the city into five separate governments along borough lines.

Democrats said the $250,000 appropriation for the commission would be inadequate for it to do any serious work, and Sen. Seymour Thaler of Queens called the action an attempt to "intimidate" Lindsay.

Lindsay and Rockefeller, strong political rivals, have engaged in name-calling recently over the size of the state and city budgets. The mayor accused Rockefeller of short-changing the cities and the poor, and the governor has called Lindsay an "inept" administrator.

The legislature also voted Tuesday night, after weeks of wrangling, to allow the city to impose $525 million in new taxes. The package was enlarged with a state guarantee of $100 million more in federal aid to the city.

Maybe Youth Should Be Taught Courtesy, Not Latin and Algebra

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

Sailboat owners make better husbands than motor boat owners because their ability to deal with the caprices of the wind also equips them to handle the whims of a woman's mind.

Society would be better off if every teen-ager was taught a course in human courtesy instead of Latin or algebra.

Every generation creates new goals and lets others die. For example, how long has it been since you met a lad whose chief ambition was to learn how to roll a cigarette with one hand?

People who knock ballet overlook two of its chief advantages: it keeps you out of the rain and there is no surer cure for insomnia.

It's time to make a major change in your life if you keep bumping into the same people at every cocktail party you go to.

If I had my life to live over again I think I would choose to become a consulting plumber, one who kept regular office hours and refused to make home calls. A good plumber today is just as respected as a physicist and makes much better money.

PARIS (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Foreign Minister Kiichi Aichi agreed today to ceremonies on June 17 for the signing of the agreement returning Okinawa to Japan in 1972.

"All questions were settled," said a spokesman for Rogers, Robert McCloskey, after the two ministers met for nearly two hours at the U.S. Embassy. McCloskey refused to give any details. But informed sources said the agreement provides for:

1. The removal of all nuclear weapons from the island.
2. Conversion of Naha airport into a completely civilian installation.
3. Payment by Japan for bases given up by the United States. Some reports said the price is to be $320 million.
4. Transfer of the Voice of America station on Okinawa to a private company.

President Nixon and Premier Eisaku Sato agreed last fall that Okinawa and the other Ryukyu islands, held by the United States since World War II, would revert to Japan in 1972. Since then representatives of the two governments have been working out the details.

The agreement will be signed simultaneously in Washington and Tokyo in a ceremony transmitted by satellite.

McCloskey said Rogers and Aichi also exchanged views on the question of Chinese representation in the United Nations and agreed to continue close consultations on the subject.

McCloskey added that Rogers urged the Japanese government to liberalize its trade and investment policy along the lines of the eight-point statement announced on June 2. He said Aichi had replied that it is Japan's intention to do this.

Chile Shaken as Rightist Assassinated

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Chile's left-wing government was plunged into a major crisis today following the assassination of a former vice president and outspoken leftist.

Edmundo Perez Zujovic, who as interior minister was No. 2 man in President Eduardo Frei's Christian Democratic administration, was ambushed Tuesday by three young men who police said were believed to be members of an ultra-left extremist organization, the Organized Vanguard of the People.

President Salvador Allende, a Marxist, declared in a broadcast that the assassination was "a deliberate provocation intended to alter the institutional life of the country."

The right-wing National party said the killing was "the culmination of a series of attacks by armed Marxists whose actions have been tolerated by the government." The Christian Democrats called on the government to wipe out such groups.

Might Tap Earth Heat for Power

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission has termed technically feasible a new concept for generating electricity by using nuclear explosives to blast trapped heat from the bowels of the earth.

A series of atomic blasts would release the heat which would convert piped-in water to steam. The steam would fuel a turbine generator to produce electricity in an above-ground power plant.

The commission envisioned such futuristic power plants in disclosing results Tuesday of a feasibility study prepared by AEC and industrial scientists.

Although technologically within reach, the report said, it is too early to say whether the "hot-rocks" idea would be economically competitive with other methods of generating electricity.

But various versions of the basic concept look promising on that score, the scientists said, especially one in which the surface power plant could be moved to a safe distance away from the explosion and then returned to business after the subterranean "fires" were loosed again.

Other concepts for 200-million-watt power plants—each serving the needs of about 200,000 people and having an operating lifetime of about 30 years—include: a zone wherein all the nuclear blasts necessary for the plant's lifetime would be touched off before the power plant was built.

An especially fortified plant, underneath which nuclear explosions would be fire every 10 years.

But the mobile plant, the AEC indicated, would allow blasting anytime the plant's operators thought necessary.

It said numerous sources of "hot rock" are expected west of the Continental Divide, "but the prospecting techniques for finding such locations have not yet been fully developed."

Blind Man Beats 'Phone Company

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A young blind man described as a "telephone genius" is $10 poorer today, and he says he will confine his use of phones to legal activities.

Josef C. Engressia, 22, was fined the $10 Tuesday by City Court Judge Ray Churchill, who also imposed and then suspended a 60-day jail sentence.

Engressia had been charged with possession of illegal telephone equipment and with defrauding South Central Bell Telephone Co.

Churchill ruled there was insufficient evidence to hold Engressia for grand jury action on the charges, reduced them to malicious mischief, and fined the youth. Engressia had pleaded innocent.

Telephone company officials charged that Engressia, who has perfect pitch, had placed calls by whistling into his telephone, and by using a so-called electronic device of his own design.

Through the whistles at 2,600 cycles, officials said, Engressia had bypassed company billing equipment and placed calls throughout the world for free.

Engressia was arrested June 2 and much of his equipment was confiscated. Churchill ordered the return of equipment which could not be used to interfere with telephone communications.

At the conclusion of a three-hour hearing Churchill told Engressia: "Providence has endowed you with talent that should be diverted to legal enterprise."

Engressia later said he is determined "to use my telephone skills legally."

Tricia Nixon, Edward Cox to Wed Saturday at the White House

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) —

Tricia Nixon was reared in an atmosphere of private schools and Secret Service protection, a public man's child who is at once a campaign asset and a daughter to be shielded from the public.

The Tricia Nixon who marries Ed Cox on Saturday has known politics as a staple of life from the day she was born. She was reared in Washington, the mecca of politics, and she is being married in the White House, America's best-known address.

The daughter of Pat and Richard Nixon was a little girl who joined the church Scout troop, adored a tabby cat named Donna and was adamant about not parting with a big turtle skin pillaged from a Florida beach.

The Nixons tried to keep her out of the bright glare to the point of once refusing to subscribe to a major Washington newspaper. Its biting critical cartoons, they felt, were not fit for their two young daughters' eyes.

But for children such as Tricia and her sister Julie, there was no protection from worldly realities.

At six, Tricia stayed up to watch television as her father was nominated for vice president in Chicago. She named the family's black and white cocker spaniel "Checkers" and it became a household word in that 1962 campaign.

Her debut as a politician's daughter was made at the 1960 Republican convention when she was still in her teens.

She remembers "the saddest day of my life,"—the day her father conceded defeat to John F. Kennedy in that 1960 presidential race. President Nixon recalls that his 14-year-old daughter cried uncontrollably.

But now Tricia is 25, a blue-eyed blonde with a delicate, fragile beauty. The years have molded her into a public personality with an overriding sense of privacy.

She is 5-foot-3, weighs only 95 pounds and gives a much younger appearance. She is reserved and speaks with the polite, soft voice of the finishing school.

But her father says "she's proved she has a mind of her own—a very strong personality—holds her own extremely well—but never starts a fight." Admittedly reserved, Tricia managed in 2½ years in the White House to take part in a

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House began accreditation today for some 600 news media representatives, from messengers to television camera men and newspaper correspondents, who have signed up to cover Saturday's wedding of Tricia Nixon and Edward Cox.

In another, vital preliminary Miss Nixon and Cox got their marriage license Tuesday, four days before the wedding. Everyone who signed up for the news accreditation got a white folder filled with news releases with "the Wedding" in big silver lettering on the outside, followed by smaller type at the bottom in silver listing the names of the bridal couple, the White House and the June 12 wedding date.

The printed and laminated press cards labeled "Nixon-Ceremonies-press" had a gray print picture of the White House from the South Grounds, scene of the wedding.

For the reporters who will be permitted to cover the wedding activities close up "the Pool" credentials were in white, yellow and blue.

All the credentialing was being done at the New Executive Office Building near the White House in a large suite, where everyone had to provide identification, under the eye of a Secret Service agent.

Meanwhile, at the White House, huge color television trucks and telephone company vehicles moved into West Executive St. between the White House and the Executive Office Building, and the staff and press parking there was moved outside for the duration of the wedding activities.

Bridegroom-to-be Eddie Cox arrived in Washington with his mother, Mrs. Howard E. Cox of New York City, and sister Mary Ann (Mazie), 25, who will be Tricia's maid of honor. They were all registered at the Army & Navy Club, where they are eligible to stay because young Cox's father, a World War II pilot, is a former Army lieutenant colonel.

The license was delivered to the White House Tuesday after they had an application filed for them Friday at the District of Columbia Marriage License Bureau and paid $2.50 in fees. Their required blood tests were made by a White House physician.

Cox is due back in town today for the rest of the wedding week's activities. He ran into an unexpected news conference when he reported to the office of the U.S. Attorney in New York, where he has a $60 a week summer job that will start after the honeymoon.

Senate Ups Military Pay, Defying Veto

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Almost tripling the figure asked by President Nixon, the Senate has voted servicemen a $2.7-billion raise, including a 125-percent pay hike for recruits.

By a vote of 51 to 27, the Senate Tuesday reversed an earlier endorsement of the Nixon administration's $1-billion pay boost and approved an amendment by Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., adding another $1.7 billion.

The Senate acted two weeks after rejecting a proposal containing about the same amount of money but dividing it as the House had, between extra pay and allowances.

A recruit would get $301.50 in basic monthly pay under the Senate bill, compared with $268.50 in the House version, $201.90 under the administration plan and $134.40 under the existing pay scale.

The Senate bill raises the minimum pay for the lowest ranking officer from the current $450.60 a month to $612.30.

The Allott amendment uses pay scales drawn up by the Gates Commission, which was appointed by President Nixon and came out in favor of an all-volunteer force. The administration says it hopes to switch to such a force by mid-1973 but Armed Service Committee chairman Sen. John C. Stennis says he doubts that will be possible.

Several hours before passing the pay raise, the Senate agreed to vote next Wednesday on the McGovern-Hatfield amendment to cut off funds for U.S. operations in Indochina Dec. 31, and to vote June 23 on a move to limit debate on the rest of the draft bill.

The two moves increased chances the draft-extension bill will be approved before the current draft law expires June 30.

Following approval of the Allott amendment, the Senate rejected 63 to 15 a proposal by Sen. Mike Gravel, D-Alaska, to keep the statute of limitations for prosecuting draft evaders at five years from the youth's 18th birthday. The bill makes a registrant liable for prosecution up to age 31 instead of 23.

The Senate also: —Approved 47 to 31 an amendment by Sen. Thomas F. Eagleton, D-Mo., to let young men register to vote in federal elections at the time they register for the draft. It was opposed by senators who said it would complicate registration procedures and discriminate against women.

—Rejected an amendment by Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., to broaden the definition of conscientious objector from those who oppose war in any form to include those objecting to a particular war, such as the Vietnam conflict. The Supreme Court ruled recently that only those who oppose war in any form could be conscientious objectors.

Debate is due to start Thursday on the McGovern-Hatfield fund-cut-off amendment, defeated a year ago by a vote of 55 to 39.

DEQUEEN, Ark. (AP) — The jury in the trial of two Sevier County brothers was to resume deliberations today in circuit court here.

The jury recessed Tuesday night after deliberating almost two hours without reaching a verdict in the case of Jefferson Kesterson, 32, and Clovis Kesterson, 22, both of Gilham.

The brothers are charged with assault with a deadly weapon in the alleged beating last May 23 of Deputy Pros. Atty. Garnet Norwood at his De Queen home.

Bumpers Points Out State Assets

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers said Tuesday that a stabilized population and an "unsurpassed living environment" may be the greatest social and economic assets possessed in Arkansas.

Bumpers said his administration was not seeking a "gross expansion of population," but was committed to a policy of providing top quality public services.

Testifying on the second and final day of hearings by the Commission on Population Growth and the American Future, the governor said the state was plagued, however, by problems beyond its financial ability to solve.

Included, Bumpers said, is underemployment of 16 percent of the state's labor force, an average family income equal to only two-thirds of the rest of the nation, a low degree of education by a large percentage of the population and inadequate availability of health services.

"We do not intend to consciously promote a policy of undisciplined growth for growth's sake," Bumpers said. "But we are in critical need of additional resources to enhance the standard of living of our citizens and the quality of life in our communities across the state."

Bumpers told the commission that there had been no attempt to manage the population of the state or to distribute the growth of the population.

He said, however, that the state was trying to direct manpower development programs into the Eastern and Southern areas of the state, which have lost population in the past decade.

The governor said the commission should give priority to recommendations on family planning. He said if the nation could stabilize its population for two years and continue at the same rate, many of the problems of the nation could be solved.

"We're just trying to keep up (with the problems)," he said.

Also testifying Tuesday was Paul Stabler, a field representative of the Oklahoma Indian Affairs Commission.

Stabler said he feared the plight of the Indian would worsen as the nation's population grows and as more and more persons congregate in urban areas.

He said there had been a sudden migration of Indians to urban areas to escape poverty and that they "too many times find they have to live under conditions as bad or worse as those they left."

Stabler said the Indian had not received a fair share of public funds available to help the poverty stricken. In his home city of Tulsa, he said, the

Allotment Program Up for Renewal

By CARL C. CRAFT

WASHINGTON (AP) — The diplomatically sticky U.S. sugar allotment program is up for renewal in the House this week with critics charging extension of the system benefits everyone but the American consumer.

Defenders say adding three more years to the 1948 Sugar Act will keep a healthy and competitive domestic sugar industry by fixing ample allotments for American producers while passing valuable quotas—worth about $40 a ton over world market prices—to friendly foreigners.

The law expires Dec. 31. Most members of the House Agriculture Committee, drafting changes amid widespread lobbying on behalf of foreign nations trying to share in the lucrative U.S. market, say the ultimate goal is assuring consumers plenty of reasonably priced sugar, a goal that is being met.

But opponents within the committee expect to fight when the measure is due to reach the House floor for action.

The committee approved the extension legislation last week 30 to 3. A prime opponent, Rep. John G. Dow, D-N.Y., said the sugar act gives producers, processors, manufacturers and importers an equitable share. But "the voice of the consumer is barely heard in the land of sugar."

Rep. Wiley Mayne, R-Iowa, another dissenter on the committee, charged the extension "will continue and aggravate a system which forces American consumers to pay high subsidies to foreign sugar producers under a quota system."

Dow is expected to strike the quota for South Africa, which would be maintained at 60,000 tons a year under the extension bill, because of that nation's apartheid racial system. He also may try to set a payment limit for domestic producers.

In addition, Dow opposes a controversial move obviously aimed at Peru and Ecuador, which have seized American property in recent years.

The committee wrote a plan into the legislation giving the President power to suspend all or part of a quota to nations expropriating American citizens' property and would let him impose a $20-per-ton tax on imported sugar from such countries—with money going to Americans who lost property without compensation.

Interest is especially intense in Latin America, with hundreds of millions of dollars at stake. The committee called for a 10-per-cent cut in the quotas for Mexico, the Dominican Republic, Brazil and Peru as well as the Philippines—the so-called Big Five shipping sugar to the United States.

West Pointer Assigned to Viet Vanishes

WASHINGTON (AP) — A young West Point graduate ordered to Vietnam is missing from his unit in Germany, the Army says, and may have fled to Sweden.

The Army said 1st Lt. John R. Vequist, 24, of Pittsburg, Kan., has been absent without leave since May 20. Pentagon sources said the Army believe he may be with his wife in Sweden where an estimated 245 other American servicemen have sought refuge.

Vequist, who graduated in 1969, automatically will be classified as a deserter if he is missing more than 30 days.

Army spokesmen said they could not recall a case involving the desertion of a West Point graduate since the beginning of the Vietnam war.

A few years ago another West Point officer, also under orders for Vietnam, went AWOL from his post in the United States but turned himself in a few days later.

Vequist's father said in a telephone interview from his Pittsburg, Kan., home he was surprised to be notified about five days ago by the Army of his son's disappearance.

"Until I understand more about it, I'd rather not comment," said the father, David G. Vequist.

minimum of public duties and campaigning, keeping a very private life of her own.

She's enjoyed some of it, however, such as a masked ball, entertaining Prince Charles and Princess Anne of England. And she's taken on such things as Potomac cruises for hospitalized servicemen and sporadically tutoring inner city children.

President Nixon's main wish for his older daughter after her White House wedding Saturday to Harvard law student Edward Cox is that she can live a life of her own, out of the "merciless glare of publicity."

She says she'd like to get a job, perhaps as a writer. The closest she's come to it was a summer stint as a receptionist in the office of then Sen. George Murphy, R-Calif., after her junior year at Finch.

"It's difficult to hold a steady job when you're a president's daughter," she says.

Nixon often recalls how he wasn't on hand when Tricia was born Feb. 21, 1946, in Whittier, Calif. He was at a Republican luncheon in Los Angeles on his first congressional campaign.

"That's the story of her life," he notes. Tricia went only briefly to public elementary school, Horace Mann here. Then it was a succession of expensive private schools: Sidwell Friends in Washington, Marlborough School for Girls in Los Angeles, Miss Chapin's and Finch College, near their Fifth Avenue Home in New York.

Tricia got high marks as a history major at Finch, was president of her junior class, a member of the International Relations Club and honor society.

Politically, she is a conservative. At 18, Tricia wrote Lester Maddox, later governor of Georgia, telling him he could avoid the issue of serving blacks by turning his fried chicken establishment into a private club. She later denied this was a racist statement.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The West Memphis School Board Tuesday filed a new desegregation plan in U.S. District Court here. The new plan sets up new attendance zones for pupils in grades 1-9.

Louisiana, Texas Fight Over Oil Land

By MIKE DUFFY

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The final showdown in a centuries-old border dispute between Texas and Louisiana opens today, with rich oil land and even part of the city of Port Arthur, Tex., hanging in the balance.

U.S. Dist. Court Judge Robert Van Pelt of Nebraska, appointed by the U.S. Supreme Court to hear both sides, set today's hearing as the last chance for the two states to present their case before the high court rules in the matter.

The disputed territory is a 200-mile stretch of border formed by the meandering Sabine River and its lakes. Louisiana claims the whole river. Texas says the boundary is in midriver.

Rich oil deposits lie beneath the river bed and Pleasure Island, a recreational area now incorporated in Port Arthur, is also involved.

Both sides have assigned the state attorney general and a former governor to argue the case: for Louisiana, Atty. Gen. Jack Gremlion, former Gov. Sam Jones and attorney Oliver Stockwell of Lake Charles; for Texas, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin and former Gov. Price Daniel.

The Sabine River has long been the scene of conflict. In 1806 Louisiana Gov. William C. Claiborne called out the militia to force invading Spaniards to retreat to the western bank.

War was averted only when both sides agreed to allow their governments to decide the boundary.

Texas has gone through three national governments since then, and many treaties and documents have been signed. However, the matter remains unsettled. The Supreme Court will decide it based on the state's arguments and Van Pelt's recommendation.

W-2 Tax Form Needed for SS Filing

"What do I need when I go to file for my social security?" This is a question asked daily of the social security office, according to Otis A. Blackwood, social security manager.

Most people know they will need their social security number and birth record. However, one record frequently overlooked but usually required is the W-2 form or copy of the tax return for the last calendar year.

Timely advice from your social security office is this. If you plan to file your claim for social security benefits this year, take your W-2 forms and copy of your 1970 income tax return with you.

By having the necessary records with you when you file for your social security, you will be assured of receiving your benefits at the earliest possible date.

You may be able to handle your claim by telephone and mail your W-2 or tax return to them. The telephone number is 794-3755.

Your Texarkana social security office is at 121 College Drive, Texarkana, Texas.

Murder Trial of 4 Begun at DeWitt

DEWITT, Ark. (AP) — Jury selection continued today in Circuit Court here in the first-degree murder trial of four youths charged with the fatal shooting of a Wynne rice farmer. Eight jurors had been seated Tuesday.

Charged are Lamar Mannis, 17, Teddy Kittler, 16, Benny West, 16, and Joe Kagebien, 15, all of DeWitt. They are accused of the shotgun slaying of Jimmy Wayne Wampler, 27. Wampler was killed last November.

Judge Joe Rhodes denied a defense motion Tuesday that a mistrial be declared because jurors had been improperly questioned.

The plan makes no change in the operation of the top three grades, which had been totally desegregated March 15.

Mullins made the remarks at a convocation at the Washington Cathedral. The convocation was part of the university's year-long centennial observance.

Israeli Hold Firm on Suez Conditions

By MARCUS ELIASON

JERUSALEM (AP) — Premier Golda Meir said today that Israel is still willing to reach a preliminary settlement with Egypt to reopen the Suez Canal but Israel's terms are unchanged. Egyptian President Anwar Sadat took an equally inflexible stand Tuesday.

"It cannot be seriously expected," Mrs. Meir told the Knesset, Israel's parliament, "that Israel will be prepared to leave the water line in order to enable the Egyptian and perhaps the Soviet army to cross the canal, and all this in a first stage of a total withdrawal from all the territories."

Mrs. Meir listed nine conditions her government is demanding for a canal agreement:

—Fighting on the canal front must not be renewed.

—Egypt must clear and operate the waterway.

—No Egyptian or other armies can cross the canal.

—Free passage for all shipping through the canal, Israeli included.

—Effective and agreed supervision procedures for the agreement.

—Means to deter any violations must be assured.

—Removal of Israeli forces from the canal bank must not be a stage leading to a further withdrawal before peace.

—The new line held by Israeli troops will not be a permanent boundary.

—The permanent boundary must be determined in a peace treaty.

The premier warned Egypt it would take on "a heavy respon-

Municipal N.Y.C. Strike Has Ended

By BOB MONROE

Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Striking municipal employees returned to work today after city and union leaders agreed to a proposal for ending the two-day walkout that throttled traffic Monday and spread to sewage treatment plants, incinerators, parks, beaches and even school lunch deliveries Tuesday.

Key to the four-point proposal by the city's office of collective bargaining was that the union's controversial pension plan would be resubmitted to the state legislature next year. Failure of the 1971 Legislature to act on the plan triggered the walkout.

The agreement announced Tuesday night also provided that if the 1972 Legislature, which will have the same political composition as this year's, fails to approve the plan, the issue will be renegotiated by the city and the union.

With the pact, District Council 37 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees immediately ordered its 7,000 strikers back to work. Teamsters Local 237 had ordered 318 striking bridge-tenders back to work earlier.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

AGE DIFFERENCE IN MARRIAGE: VINTAGE OR VINEGAR?

Dear Helen:

This is in answer to "Talked About," the 36-year-old woman in love with a 26-year-old man. You told her not to be so thin-skinned—that only gossips would yak.

Well, if this is true, then my friends and relatives are mainly gossips. I loved a man 15 years my junior. We had everything in common. He was very mature. I didn't look my age (I'm told). Yet total shock was the reaction among my group. I got so worried I went to a counselor, and she told me any woman who would permit herself to fall for a much younger man was pitifully "maladjusted and immature." I asked her why her ex-husband could remain secure, married to a 25-year-old girl. She never answered my question.

But I have the answer: We're still laboring under the old double standard. We women often find OLDER men less appealing with their sagged muscles, ulcers, etc. but we're forced to choose them, as society dictates. Men, on the other hand, have their choice, and if they can catch a younger mate, they're praised.

I hope "Talked About's" romance weathers the criticism. Mine didn't!—TENNESSEE

Dear Helen:

I think "Talked About" must be self-conscious. I married a man almost 16 years younger than I am, and after a year and a half we're still on our honeymoon. Each of us had previously been married to people near our own ages—unhappily.

We have never worried about what anyone else said. We get along great with our respective families.

Women usually take longer to age and live longer. T.A. should marry the guy she loves, and "show those gossips up."—LIFELONG HONEYMOON.

Dear Helen:

I married a man 14 years older than myself, and I wish it had been the other way around. The difference becomes more pronounced with the years, though we could never share the same friends or interests, even at first.

Now he is retired, and I'm beginning to feel as old as he is. My friends (made when the children were in Scouts and other organizations) don't come around as they feel uncomfortable, with a man snoring on the couch. His friends? Dull!

The wife of a retired man who is older is the forgotten woman. Added to the usual never-ending housework, there's another duty. She is now a —NURSE WITHOUT PAY

Dear Readers:

According to my mail, if a man marries a woman older than himself, he gets vintage stuff; but if a woman marries a much older man, he may soon turn to vinegar.

But don't take my mail as gospel: Happiness in marriage depends on the two people involved, regardless of age.—H.

Dear Helen:

I buried my husband last week. I loved him, but life must go on. I'm not looking for another husband right away, but I'm lonely, and need a man friend, someone I can talk to about the children (they're in their teens), but who won't expect an entanglements.

There's such a man at the office. Would it be too soon to ask him to dinner?—LONESOME FOR A MAN

Dear Lonesome:

Yes!—H.

P.S. Let HIM do the asking—in a month or so.

YORK-ROBBINS WEDDING

Miss Bernice York, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James York of Fouke, and Ricky A. Robbins, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Connie A. Robbins of Spring Hill, were married Friday, June 4 at 8 p.m. in the Spring Hill United Methodist Church.

The father of the groom officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladioli. Mrs. Brooks Collins, organist, played a program of nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in traditional satin trimmed with Alencon lace at the sweetheart neckline. The full skirt swept into a chapel train, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Judy York served her sister as maid of honor. She was dressed in yellow and her flowers were daisies.

For the wedding, Mrs. York wore pink and Mrs. Robbins chose a blue whipped cream frock. Each had white carnation corsages.

Immediately following the wedding, the guests were invited to a small reception at the church, where cake and punch were served.

The groom has recently returned from 14 months of active duty in Vietnam with the 101st Airborne Division of the United States Army. He is now employed by Standard Generator Service in Hope, and the newlyweds will be at home at 801 South Main.

Chicago Downed 5-3 by Cleveland

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's not quite the same perhaps as the breakfast of champions, but lunching with Gomer Hodge has its advantages as far as Sam McDowell is concerned.

McDowell, Cleveland's fireballing left-hander, had his ceremonial pre-game victory meal with teammate Hodge Tuesday and then feasted on the Chicago White Sox to the tune of 5-3 with 11 strikeouts.

"Give the credit to Gomer," insisted McDowell, who has had either breakfast or lunch with Hodge before each of his five previous triumphs this season.

Elsewhere in the American League, Boston snapped Oakland's five-game winning streak 5-1, Baltimore made it six in a row with a 8-2 rout of Minnesota, Detroit trimmed Milwaukee 8-3, Kansas City beat Washington 4-2 and the New York Yankees blanked California 3-0.

National League scores: Montreal 10, San Francisco 3; Los Angeles 4, Philadelphia 2; Atlanta 8, St. Louis 7 in 10 innings; New York Mets 6, San Diego 4; Chicago Cubs 1, Pittsburgh 0 in 12 innings and Houston 2, Cincinnati 0.

McDowell checked the White Sox on six hits and three walks and raised his record over 500 for the first time this season at 6-5. The 11 strikeouts marked the 72nd time he has been in double figures, increasing his AL record. Sandy Koufax of the Brooklyn-Los Angeles Dodgers did it 97 times, the major league mark.

Both McDowell and batterymate Ray Fosse were satisfied with the southpaw's performance.

"Tonight I was a pitcher," said McDowell. "Before I was only a thrower. I had more confidence in everything I threw, more confidence than I've had all season. And, for a change, I didn't have to rely on only one pitch."

Roy Foster's three-run homer in the second inning was the big blow for the Indians. McDowell allowed a two-run bloop single to Rick Reichardt in the third and Tom Egan homered in the ninth.

Ray Culp's three-hitter—he also struck out 11—helped Boston keep pace with Baltimore in the AL East. Duane Josephson socked a two-run homer for the Red Sox, who trail the Orioles by 1½ games.

Culp didn't allow a baserunner until Mike Epstein singled to lead off the fifth. Dave Duncan's eighth-inning homer spoiled his shutout bid. The Red Sox had lost seven of their nine previous games.

The Orioles shelled Minnesota's Bert Blyleven with five runs in the second inning, two on Mark Belanger's double and two more on Don Buford's eighth home run. Belanger and Dave Johnson each had three hits in support of Pat Dobson's strong pitching.

Mickey Stanley's bases-loaded triple was the key blow as the Tigers whipped the Brewers for Mickey Lolich's ninth victory. Dalton Jones hit a two-run homer in the eighth. Lolich was bothered mostly by rookie Ron Theobald, who belted his first major league homer as the game's first batter and later drove in a run with a sacrifice fly.

Lefty Paul Splittorff, making his first start after being recalled from the minors, hurled 7 2/3 strong innings and gave up only one run as the Royals downed Washington for their eighth win in 10 games and shaved Oakland's lead in the AL West to seven games.

Ed Kirkpatrick smacked a two-run double as the Royals scored three times off Casey Cox in the third inning. Tom McCraw homered for the Senators off Ted Abernathy in the ninth.

Mel Stottlemyre throttled California on six hits and Danny Cater rammed two singles, a double and his first homer in the Yankees' victory. Stottlemyre, who also delivered a run-scoring single, has a lifetime 14-3 mark against the Angels, including five shutouts.

U.S. Open Field Nearly Completed

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The 150-man field for the U.S. Open Golf Tournament was all but completed Tuesday as Denny Lyons and Jim Masserio in Pittsburgh, Pete Davidson in West Orange, N.J., Mike Felker in Laytonville, Md., and Bob Dickson in Pinehurst, N.C., led the way.

Forty-two golfers qualified in Tuesday's second and final round with one spot remaining, to be decided in a sudden-death playoff Wednesday in Pinehurst after darkness halted play.

Don Bies of Seattle, firing a solid nine-under-par 135 at the Atlanta Country Club, led Monday's 72 qualifiers. He also had the best round of any pro or amateur qualifier as 141 was the best anyone could attain Tuesday.

The rest of the field will consist of 35 of the game's top names, all exempt from qualifying for the June 17-20 tourney at the Merion Golf Club, Admore, Pa.

They include the Open champions of the past five years—Billy Casper, Jack Nicklaus, Lee Trevino, Orville Moody and defending titlist Tony Jacklin of Britain, the PGA champs in that span—Al Geiberger, Don January, Julius Boros, Ray Floyd and Dave Stockton, and 1970 U.S. Amateur champion Lanny Wadkins Jr.

Lyons, a pro from Niagara Falls, N.Y., and Masserio, an amateur from Duquesne, Pa., first one-under par 141s to lead the seven qualifiers at the Pittsburgh Field Club. Touring pro Bobby Nichols was third at 143.

Davidson, of Rochester, N.Y., scored his 141 on the par 70 Montclair Golf Club in West Orange as five of the 13 qualifiers tied for second at 143.

Felker, of Newport News, Va., also at 141, breezed in three strokes ahead of runner-up amateur Mike Nesbitt of Bethesda, Md., at Laytonville's par-73 Montgomery Country Club.

Dickson, of Muskogee, Okla., had a two-stroke margin over three runners-up with his 141 on the par-71 Pinehurst Country Club course.

Saints Sign Two Draftees

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The New Orleans Saints of the National Football League announced the signing of two draftees, safety Tom Williams and cornerback Ron Gathright. Williams, a ninth-round choice, attended Willamette College. Gathright was a 12th-round selection from Morehead State.

Williams won 10 games and shaved Oakland's lead in the AL West to seven games.

Ed Kirkpatrick smacked a two-run double as the Royals scored three times off Casey Cox in the third inning. Tom McCraw homered for the Senators off Ted Abernathy in the ninth.

Mel Stottlemyre throttled California on six hits and Danny Cater rammed two singles, a double and his first homer in the Yankees' victory. Stottlemyre, who also delivered a run-scoring single, has a lifetime 14-3 mark against the Angels, including five shutouts.

Atlanta 8-7 Over St. Louis

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Atlanta Braves are up to their old hanky panky with Hank Aaron supplying the spunk and Chief Noc-a-homa the spark.

Hot Hand Hank drilled his 18th home run and a single for his eighth straight hit and Atlanta's No. 1 cheerleader sent up his usual smoke signals during Tuesday night's 8-7, 10-inning triumph over St. Louis.

"I knew I had been hitting well, but I don't keep up with records ... you don't have time to remember things like that on a club this exciting," said Aaron, whose eight safeties in three games were two shy of the National League mark.

Aaron moved over the .300 level for the first time this season with a four-hit night Monday and padded his mark to .313 with Tuesday night's work.

Not bad, considering Hammerin' Hank is playing on one leg. The right knee has fluid in it and is painful, says Aaron.

In the other National League games, Chicago nipped Pittsburgh 1-0 in 12 innings; Los Angeles stopped Philadelphia 4-2; Montreal whacked San Francisco 10-3; New York turned back San Diego 6-4 and Houston whipped Cincinnati 2-0.

American League: Cleveland 5, Chicago 3; Baltimore 8, Minnesota 2; Kansas City 4, Washington 2; Detroit 8, Milwaukee 3; Boston 5, Oakland 1 and New York 3, California 0.

Aaron's hitting string included a single and home run on Sunday and two doubles and two singles Monday prior to his two-run homer in the first inning and third-inning single in Tuesday night's affair.

Aaron's hitting helped Atlanta build a 7-3 lead as slugmate Orlando Cepeda delivered a three-run homer, his 14th. But the Braves wasted the advantage by giving the Cardinals four runs in the eighth, three on two infield errors.

After St. Louis scored on Ted Simmons' single, Joe Torre bounced a single off the third base bag that eventually led to three runs. Third baseman Earl Williams fielded the ball as Matty Alou headed toward third, but elected to throw to first and threw wildly, allowing Alou to score. Simmons and Torre kept running and each scored as Cepeda's throw went into the Cardinal dugout.

Pinch-hitter Darrell Evans delivered the winning run with a sacrifice fly in the 10th.

Joe Pepitone belted his seventh home run in the 12th inning to give Ken Holtzman and Chicago a 1-0 triumph over Pittsburgh. Pepitone's two-out shot came on an offering from Jim "Mudcat" Grant, who entered the contest in the eighth inning in relief of Jim Nelson.

Holtzman, in his first start since pitching a no-hitter last Thursday against Cincinnati, struck out 12 and spaced nine hits in going the distance.

Jim Lefebvre cracked a two-run homer in the sixth inning to help Los Angeles beat Philadelphia. Lefebvre's fifth circuit shot gave the Dodgers a 3-0 lead before Willie Montanez unloaded a two-run homer for the Phillies in their half of the inning.

Bullet Bill Singer had the Phillies blanked on five hits until the sixth. Jim Brewer pitched the last two innings to preserve Singer's fourth victory in 13 decisions this year.

Montreal raked San Francisco ace Juan Marichal for five runs in the first four innings and rode Bill Stoneman's 13-strikeout pitching to a triumph over the spinning Giants, who lost their sixth of seven games.

After Stoneman struck out the side in the first, the Expos pounced on Marichal for three runs in their half of the inning. Mack Jones, who singled in the opening-inning burst, also hit a home run in the second. John Bateman delivered a four-bagger in the fourth to highlight Montreal's 13-hit offense.

Art Shamsky hit a homer and Jerry Grote broke out a 6-0 first-inning slump with three hits and a run batted in as New York topped San Diego.

Starter Gary Gentry drove in the decisive fifth run in the New York fifth, but needed late-inning relief help from Daray Frisella to notch his fifth victory.

NEW YORK (AP) — The Washington Senators were expected to draft outfielder Rob Ellis of Michigan State today and package him for immediate shipment to Manager Ted Williams—if he'll consider a contract that doesn't include the Washington Monument.

The last-place Senators were expected to tap Ellis, a 400-hitter with 14 homers for the Spartans, in one category of the secondary phase of the draft, and club owner Bob Short is on record as wanting him in uniform for Thursday's game against Kansas City.

"I'm not going to give our No. 1 pick—the Washington Monument," said Short, "but I think we can make it attractive enough to get him to come to

13,000 U.S. Golfers Are Expected to Make Hole-In-One This Year

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent

NEW YORK (AP) — The dream of every golfer is to score a hole-in-one and it's a dream that will come true this year for 13,000 Americans, duffers and pros alike.

These figures are furnished through the courtesy of James and George Stodart, Ltd., of Dumbarton, Scotland, distillers of spirits, who run a game called Hole-In-One Sweepstakes.

At the end of the year the names of all the players who have scored aces are placed into a big drum. The one drawn gets $1,000 in cash, a trip for two to Scotland and a chance to play famous Scottish courses such as St. Andrews and Carnoustie.

Richard M. Nixon qualified for the contest in 1961—the year after he was beaten by John F. Kennedy for the presidency. He sank a tee shot at the Bel Air Country Club in Los Angeles.

After receiving a special tag for his golf bag, Nixon wrote Tom Scott, director and general manager of the distilling firm: "I thought you might like to know that despite the hole-in-one, I ended up with a 91 and lost three dollars. But, I must admit, it was worth it!"

The late Dwight D. Eisenhower, an avid golfer, once holed out a tee shot on a short par three course in Palm Springs, Calif., but it didn't count. Edmund Muskie, Jackie Gleason, Joe DiMaggio and Fred MacMurray are a few celebrities who have had aces.

The Stodarts, using computers, figure the odds against a hole-in-one are about 85,000 to 1. Less sophisticated efforts to fix such odds have proved unavailing.

In 1932, 213 professional and amateur golfers who at one time had scored a hole-in-one each took five shots—a total of 1,085—on a 129-yard hole at the Salisbury Club in New York. The closest shot landed 10½ inches away.

In a similar effort in New York in 1951, 1,409 golfers, each of whom had scored an ace in his career, took five shots apiece—aggregating 7,045—at various par three holes. The closest missed by 3½ inches.

In 1940, an American professional named Harry Gonder stood for 16 hours and 25 minutes trying to ace a 180-yard hole. His efforts produced 1,817 shots and blistered hands, but no ace. The famed Turnesa brothers, on a $1,000 wager, once tried from sun-up to sundown and never got a hole-in-one.

Yet Art Wall, a veteran of the pro golf tour, has scored 37 aces in his career, a record.

A Bakersfield, Calif., physician, Dr. Joseph O. Boydstone, collected 11 in one year, 1962, according to Golf Digest.

The longest hole-in-one on record is 444 yards by Robert Mittera of Omaha, Neb., on the 10th hole at Miracle Hills in 1965. T.S. South, 91, an Englishman, is the oldest to get an ace and Tommy Moore, 9, of Hagerstown, Md., is the youngest.

Norman Manley of Saugus, Calif., produced what may be the greatest feat when he holed out tee shots on consecutive par four holes in 1964.

A. Palmer Favorite in Kemper Open

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, back in action after a three-week absence, ranks as one of the top favorites in the $150,000 Kemper Open Golf Tournament.

Palmer, who has taken two titles and already has won more than $106,000 this season, has played a much busier schedule than usual this year, competing in 14 events.

But he hasn't played since the Houston Champions International almost a month ago when he had his poorest finish of the year, a tie for 48th.

The all-time leading money winner and the game's greatest gate attraction didn't break par all week. He decided to take time off to work on his sagging game and prepare for next week's United States Open Championship in Ardmore, Pa.

Palmer wasn't scheduled to arrive until late today. South African Gary Player and Lee Trevino, both playing very, very well right now, are his chief challengers in the 147-man field that begins the 72-hole chase for the $30,000 first prize on Thursday.

Both have won twice this year and they finished in a tie for third, just one stroke back of Gardner Dickinson and Jack Nicklaus, in last week's Atlanta Classic.

"That's been happening to me all year," said Trevino. "Close but no cigar."

He has missed a share of first place in four tournaments by a total of five shots. He was one stroke back of Player at Jacksonville, trailed the little South African by two the next week at National Airlines, and was one stroke back of Houston winner Hubert Green, and he missed by one last week.

Some other top contenders include $100,000 winner Miller Barber, Masters King Charles Coody, U.S. Open title-holder Tony Jacklin of England and defending champion Dick Lotz. Dickinson, a playoff winner last week, and Nicklaus, both are among the missing. Dickinson simply decided to take the week off while Nicklaus, the season's leading money winner, is preparing for the Open.

Also skipping this tournament—all with an eye on the Open—are Billy Casper, Frank Beard and Dave Hill.

Californian Leads in Senior Golf

RYE, N.Y. (AP) — A 58-year-old Californian from Santa Barbara, Robert Vaillancourt, took the first-round lead in the U.S. Seniors Golf Association championship Tuesday with a two-under-par 70.

One of the last to finish on a hot, humid day, Vaillancourt put together rounds of 35-35 over the 6,054-yard Apawamis Club course to take a two-stroke lead in the 36-hole, two-day competition.

Tied for second at 72 were David "Spec" Goldman, the defending champion from Dallas, and William Wright of Clementon, N.J.

Goldman, who competed over the par 72, 6,287-yard Round Hill Course, collapsed from the heat after his third shot on the 17th green. After being revived he sank a short putt for a par 4 and finished the round without any apparent ill effects.

Curtis Person of Memphis,

EQUALITY REIGNS in professional golf, at least as far as frustration goes, which is pretty far. Arnold Palmer and Joanne Carne show similar reactions to near misses.

Former U of A QB Dies

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Steve W. Creekmore Sr. of Fort Smith, a well-known golfer, former University of Arkansas quarterback and a member of the Arkansas Hall of Fame, died Tuesday. He was 81.

Creekmore, who lived his entire life in Fort Smith and Van Buren, had been in the insurance business since 1930. He was past president of the Arkansas Association of Insurance Agents.

He quarterbacked Arkansas to its first undefeated football season in 1910. He won the state golf championship in 1930 and 1931 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1960.

Survivors include his widow, a son and two daughters. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Travelers Win Over Charlotte

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Bob Wissler cracked a three-run homer in the top of the 11th inning to boost the Arkansas Travelers to an 8-3 victory over the Charlotte Hornets Tuesday night.

Wissler's home run, his 15th of the season, came off reliever Vic Albury who scored the tying run in the seventh inning.

The victory moved the Travelers another half game ahead of second-place Memphis in the Central Division of the Dixie Association. Arkansas now leads by 3½ games. The Jacksonville - Memphis game was rained out Tuesday night.

In other Dixie action, Amarillo split a doubleheader with Dallas - Fort Worth. Amarillo took the opener 4-3 and Dallas-Fort Worth won the nightcap 6-3. Elsewhere, Asheville whipped Birmingham 6-3, Columbus edged Montgomery 4-3 and San Antonio defeated Albuquerque 6-5.

NLR Track Star Signs With UofA

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Phil Mehlh of the University of Arkansas at Little Rock defeated Bruce Shuman of Eastern Illinois 6-3, 9-7 here Tuesday in the third round of the national NALA tennis tournament.

Ray Tucker, also of UALR, lost his third round match to Ken Rand of Atlantic Christian, 6-2, 6-1.

Tenn., a former champion, took a 78 and was well back in the field of 445. Those who play the Apawamis Course Tuesday will play Round Hill Wednesday and vice versa.

Robert Ogle, a right-handed, 6-foot-1 first baseman at Tala-wanda High School in Oxford, Ohio, was picked 29th of 31 players by the Reds.

Alton lives in Dartrtown, Ohio, south of Oxford. MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico defeated Canada 1-0 Tuesday night in the North American elimination soccer tournament for the 1972 Olympics.

DETROIT (AP) — Pitcher Denny McLain has been drafted by the Detroit Tigers—not right-handed Dennis Dale McLain, the former Tiger 31-game winner now with the Washington Senators—but left-handed Dennis McLain, a 17-year-old from Detroit South-eastern High School.

The prep McLain, picked in Tuesday's opening day of the regular free agent major league baseball draft, was picked number 17 by Detroit. The McLain who pitched for the Tigers last season wore number 17 and still does with Washington.

Beliveau May Be Retiring

MONTREAL (AP) — The Montreal Gazette said the Montreal Canadiens will call a news conference today and speculated that it will be to announce the retirement of team Captain Jean Beliveau.

Canadiens' General Manager Sam Pollock was not available for comment.

Meanwhile, Scotty Bowman, former general manager and coach of the St. Louis Blues, admitted Tuesday night he has a date to talk with Pollock "about my own situation" after the draft meetings.

Bowman, considered to be the top candidate to replace Al MacNeil should the latter resign his post as coach of Montreal, insisted that today's news conference doesn't affect him.

"If there's a conference, it doesn't affect me whatsoever," he said.

Lockheed Seen as Economic Issue Only

By HARRISON HUMPHRIES
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Deputy Secretary of Defense David Packard said today he sees no way Lockheed Aircraft Corp. can avoid bankruptcy if a government loan guarantee is not provided.

In an appearance before the Senate Banking Committee, Packard said the issue is not primarily one of defense implication but an economic issue.

Substantial unemployment would be the immediate result, he said, and there would be substantial losses in an industry already weakened by reduction in defense programs.

The committee is considering an administration request for authorization to guarantee $250 million in bank loans to Lockheed to finance continued development of the new commercial L1011 TriStar Airbus for the airlines.

Packard said there is no legal barrier to defense Department dealings with a bankrupt firm. Lockheed is the nation's largest defense contractor.

The key consideration, he said, would be whether the contracts were fair and reasonable and whether the contractor could perform.

Packard said it is not possible to determine in advance how many suppliers and subcontractors of Lockheed, who also are important defense contractors, would be placed in serious financial difficulty. But he said several certainly would be affected.

Also, he said, dealing with a firm in bankruptcy could result in increased costs to the government on defense equipment.

Mulching Has 3 Values for Farmer

How can mulching be a gardener's best friend? Here is how, says Cayce B. Smith, associate county Extension agent.

First, it eliminates soil compaction from heavy rains. Second, mulch helps maintain soil moisture. Third, it reduces soil temperature in the root zone. And fourth, it minimizes labor by eliminating grasses and weeds.

Many materials are available to homeowners to mulch vegetable or flower gardens. Mulches occurring in nature are: Pine needles, leaves, lawn clippings, and gravel. Some materials are manufactured for mulching, while others are a by-product of another industry.

Smith said that what you use is not as important as how you use it. A 4 inch layer is usually effective. However, 2 inches of gravel over black plastic usually is adequate.

It may be necessary to add to the mulch to maintain it at about 3 to 4 inches during the growing season.

Old newspapers have given excellent results in Hempstead County. Five to six sheets thickness were sufficient where coverage was thorough.

A gardener has a lot going for him when using a properly applied and maintained mulch.

If you want to know more about mulching or mulch materials, contact your nearest County Extension Office.

Polluting of India's Rivers With Cholera Germs Brings Violence

By SANTOSH BASAK
KRISHNAGAR, India (AP) — India's West Bengal State is short of police because so many are guarding the rivers to keep the bodies of cholera victims from being thrown in.

According to conservative official estimates, the week-old epidemic among refugees from East Pakistan has taken at least 4,000 lives, half in the Nadia district surrounding Krishnagar.

The 200,000 residents of Krishnagar, 60 miles northeast of Calcutta, are tense.

Rumors spread daily that Pakistani agents from across the border 20 miles away are emptying bottles of cholera germs into the local water supplies to make the epidemic spread faster.

A crowd of 500 persons beat a Moslem to death Monday at the Krishnagar railway station after a report that he had emptied a small bottle into a roadside well.

D. K. Ghosh, the district magistrate of Krishnagar, said it is true the rivers are being polluted but it is caused by the bodies of cholera victims thrown in by relatives for quick burial.

He said that so many police were now deployed to guard the rivers against this that there is a shortage of police to enforce law and order. With the state's population increased by at least 4 1/2 million refugees from East Pakistan and with hundreds of thousands more coming across the frontiers each week, the West Bengal government asked other states to lend it at least 20 battalions of police.

Most of the cholera victims have been Hindus, who normally

Nation-Wide Bell 'Phone Strike Near

WASHINGTON (AP) — The top union negotiator in nationwide telephone bargaining has predicted a walkout of some half a billion Bell System workers if negotiations don't pick up.

"It looks like there will be a strike," said President Joseph A. Beirne of the AFL-CIO Communications Workers.

"As of right now things look bleak."

The union wants an immediate 25 per cent increase on salaries that presently range from $101 a week for women clerks to $193 a week for central office switchmen in larger cities. Bell has offered an 11 per cent increase the first year, 3 per cent in each of the next two years and some cost-of-living pay, the union said Tuesday.

Beirne said Bell System still could make an offer that would avert a strike.

However, the results of a nationwide strike vote now underway will be announced at the union's Kansas City convention starting next Monday, he said.

A walkout would cause telephone service to deteriorate as computerized equipment broke down, Beirne said, especially in New York, Chicago, Detroit and Miami where "the equipment is in pretty bad shape."

New Trial Ordered for Smith

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — A federal judge today ordered Edgar H. Smith Jr., who has spent 14 years on New Jersey's Death Row in the slaying of a teen-age girl, released within 24 hours on $5,000 bail.

U.S. Dist. Court Judge John J. Gibbon's ruling came two weeks after he ordered a new trial for Smith, convicted in the 1957 slaying of Victoria Zielinski, 15, of Mahwah, N.J.

The judge set no conditions for the bail other than that Smith, 37, be available for court action pertaining to the case.

The Bergen County prosecutor's office has said it will attempt to bring Smith to trial again on a murder charge, but added that this will be difficult because many of the witnesses and evidence are no longer available.

Smith, who has spent more time in the shadow of the electric chair than any other American prisoner, was accompanied at the bail hearing by conservative columnist and editor William F. Buckley Jr. Buckley was instrumental in helping arrange publication of "Brief Against Death," Smith's account of his struggle to prove his innocence.

Smith's lawyer, Stephen Umin, argued that Smith had attained a high degree of rehabilitation during his 14 years behind bars. Asst. Bergen County Prosecutor Edward Fitzpatrick argued that there was "good evidence Smith committed the murder."

Judge Gibbon overturned Smith's original conviction on grounds his unsigned confession to the slaying was coerced and that he was "trapped into an incriminating admission."

Preminger Sued for Divorce

NEW YORK (AP) — The late Gypsy Rose Lee's son, Erik Preminger, is being sued for divorce by his wife of four years, Barbara Ann, a former stewardess.

In papers filed Tuesday with Manhattan Supreme Court, Mrs. Preminger, 26, charged her husband, also 26, with cruel and inhuman treatment. She asked alimony, possession of their home, custody of their 3-year-old son, Christopher, and support for the child.

Preminger was legally adopted by movie producer Otto Preminger last March after the producer disclosed that he was the father of Miss Lee's son but at her request he had not made a public declaration of his paternity before her death.

5¢ Per Voter Limit Set on TV Spending

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate's Democratic policymakers have agreed unanimously to back a five cents per voter ceiling on television and radio spending by candidates in the 1972 campaigns for Congress and the White House.

With the Democratic party still deeply in debt, that limit would whittle down the impact of what is likely to be a substantial Republican financial advantage in 1972.

But Sen. O. Pastore, D-R.I., insisted that was not his goal in pressing for the five cents limit.

"I'm not interested in the politics of it," he said. "That may change after 1972."

The Senate Democratic Policy Committee agreed Tuesday to support Pastore in what looms as a floor dispute between two of the committees that draft Senate legislation.

The Senate Commerce Committee approved a ceiling equal to a nickel for each American of voting age on 1972 expenditures for broadcast campaigning, and another nickel for spending on printed and billboard campaign advertising.

But the Rules Committee decided, 4 to 3, and with two Democrats absent, to impose a single over-all ceiling of 10 cents a voter, and let the candidate decide how to allocate it.

Pastore said in an interview that would make the provision all but meaningless, because with a 10-cent limit, broadcast campaign spending in the 1972 presidential campaign could exceed the Republican outlays of 1968.

Weyerhaeuser Gives $5,000 to Colleges

The Dierks Division of Weyerhaeuser Company has just made a contribution of $5,000 to the Arkansas Foundation of Associated Colleges.

Mr. W.C. Southard of the Division's headquarters in Hot Springs forwarded the check to AFAC and said Weyerhaeuser was very pleased to be able to invest in these non-tax-supported colleges and universities in Arkansas. This is part of grants totaling $145,000 this year to independent colleges and universities in states where the company has manufacturing facilities.

Colonel M.M. Radcliffe, AFAC Executive Director, said this is the second year Weyerhaeuser Company has assisted these member colleges in Arkansas and it is an increase of $1,500 over the 1970 investment.

The member colleges of AFAC are Arkansas College at Batesville; The College of the Ozarks at Clarksville; Harding College at Searcy; Hendrix College at Conway; John Brown University at Sloom Springs; Ouachita Baptist University at Arkadelphia and Southern Baptist College at Walnut Ridge.

Larry Patterson, Chairman of the Hope Kiwanis Club's Membership Development Committee, had charge of Tuesday's meeting in which he formally inducted the two newest members of the Hope Club, Jerry Westmoreland and Hobart Shirley.

In his remarks Mr. Patterson reviewed the beginning of Kiwanis in a single Detroit club to its present International scope, and from its beginning as a business-social club to its present status as a Service Club. In its convention in 1924 held in Denver six permanent Objects were adopted, objects which have remained unchanged to this day. They are: To give primacy to the human and spiritual, rather than to the material values of life; To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships; To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business, and professional standards; To develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive, and serviceable citizenship; to render altruistic service, and to build a better community; To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and good will.

Delegates and alternates for the upcoming International Convention to be held in San Francisco late this month have been selected to represent the Hope Club. They are Dean Murphy, Kenneth Hamilton, Dale Franks, and Clifford Franks.

Services Held for Victims

By KEITH HEARN
Associated Press Writer
YUBA CITY, Calif. (AP) — "They were workers, they were not bums," a skid row mission superintendent said of the 25 drifters found stabbed and hacked to death when buried in orchard graves just outside of town.

"I knew quite a few of those men," the Rev. C. W. Renwick added at a half-hour memorial service for the mass murder victims Tuesday at sundown. "They came into our mission to shave, shower and put on clean clothes to get to work.

"They would resent being called bums. They weren't discouraged and they loved life."

About 200 residents of this agricultural community and adjacent Marysville sat on the wooden bleachers of the high school football field for the services sponsored by the cities' ministerial associations.

The field is about a half-mile from the home of Juan V. Corona, a 37-year-old farm labor contractor who has pleaded innocent to charges of slaying 10 of the men.

"One of the lessons we can learn is we can do more for those who are left behind in this kind of situation," the Rev. Mr. Renwick said of the dozens of other transients and migrant field workers.

His thoughts were echoed by the Rev. Howard Alexander, pastor of Marysville's First Baptist Church: "We are our brother's keeper. We should be more aware and more concerned for these men who pass through our community."

"This is evidenced by the size of the gathering here," he told the 200. Yuba City and Marysville have a total of about 25,000 residents.

"Most of these men are faceless and nameless to us here," he said. "But they contributed to the community's wealth. They were not guests in your home or at your table, but they are guests just the same."

"We do not come here this evening to lash ourselves for what has happened," said the Rev. Edgar Nelson, pastor of First United Methodist church of Marysville, "but we are embarrassed. We share in the guilt."

Senate O.Ks Works Bill, Veto Ahead

By JANET STAIHAR
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed a $5.5-billion public works bill facing a possible veto and containing elements of a possible presidential campaign issue next year.

The conference committee measure was sent to the House on a 45-33 vote Tuesday, despite Republican warnings it clashes head-on with President Nixon's revenue-sharing program and invites a veto.

Drawing strongest objections were the $2 billion to provide jobs in high unemployment areas and help build public works projects in depressed areas, and $1.5 billion to continue the Appalachian regional development program.

The measure also provides $1.95 billion to help local governments upgrade their economies through loans and other construction aids.

Democrats are expected to stress the economy and unemployment in their 1972 campaign.

The Senate originated the bill chiefly to extend Appalachian and other regional programs four years and the Appalachian highway building program five years.

The House expanded the legislation, tacking on the accelerated public works program. In conference the Democratic majority accepted the House version.

Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr., R-Tenn., called it "imprudent, pork-barrel legislation" costing $20,000 for each job created.

"This would build court-houses and city halls all over the country," Baker said, "but it will not concentrate the aid in the really needy areas which are crying for help."

Baker praised the Appalachian Regional Development programs but said they were being "held hostage to unwise legislative maneuvers."

Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., co-author of the original Appalachian bill with Sen. Jennings Randolph, D-W.Va., said the House version should be stripped of its new public works section.

But Randolph, the bill's floor manager, insisted the compromise "presents a well-balanced approach to problems of unemployment throughout the whole nation."

The 13-state Appalachian region would get $925 million for highways, $5 million for cleaning up junked cars and appliances and $40 million for airport safety programs. Another $576 million would be allotted over four years for aid programs such as housing, strip mine reclamation, and health and education.

Also included is $305 million for five other regional development commissions in the Ozarks, New England, Upper Great Lakes, Four Corners (Utah, Arizona, New Mexico and Colorado) and Coastal Plains (North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia).

Wants to Name Street for Elvis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — An ordinance will be introduced next Tuesday to rename a section of a Memphis street "Elvis Presley Boulevard."

Haymes Is in Debt Again

LONDON (AP) — Singer Dick Haymes, who earned and spent a million dollars before going bankrupt in 1960, says he's so broke now he can't afford to go to bankruptcy court for a hearing on new debts.

Haymes, 52, was due in court at Kingston in Surrey Tuesday on a credit petition seeking payment of a 1966 loan of $3,600. An assistant official receiver told the court, however, that Haymes said he was doing a three-week engagement in Madrid and could not afford the $178.78 fare for a one-day return flight from Spain.

"He is treating this very lightly," the judge said, adding that he was "tempted to order the singer's arrest." Another hearing was scheduled for July 13.

Haymes gave the court a statement listing $37,504 in liabilities and $480 in assets.

Much of the money he earned and spent in the late 1940s and the 1950s went for alimony. He is currently married to his sixth wife.

Coming And Going

The Second Annual Stewardship Retreat for the West, South, and Central Conferences of the 12th Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, was held at St. James A.M.E. Church, Camden, Arkansas Tuesday, June 8.

Members of Bethel A.M.E. Church, Hope, who attended were: Dr. W.G. Wynn, Pastor, his son, Xavier Wynn, W.M. Muldrew, Mesdames E.M. Nelson, R.L. Davis, and E.L. Hicks.

John Williamson and sons Albert Lee Williamson of Milwaukee, Wisconsin and John E. Williamson, Jr. and grandson Lessie Williamson both of Chicago, Illinois accompanied Mrs. Della M. Williamson to Jackson, Mississippi to attend the Commencement exercises at the Piney Woods High School, where Ella Beatrice Williamson was a student during the 1970-71 school term.

They report a very enjoyable trip.

Some fellows, though they play poor golf, swear by it

By Oswald & James Jacoby

When you use weak twobids, keep in mind that you have told your partner a great deal about your hand. In most instances he will take charge from then on.

One exception to this is when he responds two no-trump and rebids to three no-trump. In this case he tells you that he prefers no-trump, but that you should go back to your suit if your hand is very suit-oriented.

On the other hand, if he jumps to three no-trump in response to your weak two, he is telling you he can make three no-trump. Let him play the hand there.

North wanted to bid four hearts, but respected his partner's judgment and passed. It was well that he did. Four hearts would not make and South made 12 tricks at no-trump.

East won the spade lead with the ace and returned the eight. West ducked because he would have no way to make any tricks with small spades. This would have been a good play most of the time. This time it was suicide.

South ran off his seven diamonds while discarding all of dummy's six hearts. Now, look at that little six of hearts held by South! It was higher than either of West's hearts and squeezed poor East out of any tricks with his hearts and clubs.

East had gone down to four cards. If all four were clubs his last heart would be gone. If three were clubs then dummy's four clubs would all be winners.

♥+CARD Sense+♠

The bidding has been:

What do you do now?
A—Bid three clubs. Your partner should make this contract.

TODAY'S QUESTION
West and North pass and East goes to three spades. What do you do now?

RUBBING NOSES, these two horses attracted the attention of Mrs. Jane Stephenson, who was on a Sunday afternoon drive with her family near Lexington, Ky.

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I have been told by some people that bikini underwear can cause a man to become sterile. Is that true? And if so how? I can't understand it. How can you tell whether you are sterile or not?

Dear Reader—If true it would certainly be a boon to the population control people.

Nature provided a means to control the temperature of the testicles by placing them outside the body and providing muscles that contract and relax the scrotum. When it is cold they contract and the testicles are drawn up close to the body warmth, when it is hot the muscles relax and they are farther away from the body heat. Heat does influence the formation of live sperm.

Any underwear or garment that interferes with nature's mechanism of controlling the temperature can have some effect on the live sperm. This is not enough though to cause sterility since millions of men wear this type of underwear for "support."

You can tell you are not sterile if you father a child and you are sure it's yours. Another way is an examination. The fluid is examined under a microscope to see how many live cells it contains. You can have fluid, of course, and have no, or not enough, live cells to be fertile. Of course, it only takes one in the right place at the right time.

Dear Dr. Lamb—In regard to your comment in your column, "If it were possible to treat every strep throat properly rheumatic heart disease would cease to be a problem." It's possible. And very simple. I can't afford to take four children to the doctor for every sore throat and he wouldn't have time for everyone if they could. If the labs would do a throat culture for strep for say $1.00 each instead of $5.00 or $8.00 then at each sore throat parents could afford to have it done—if strep shows, go to the doctor—this would also have to be a help to him.

Dear Reader—Your suggestion has merit and perhaps throat cultures and other laboratory tests will one day be available to the public before going to a doctor. Don't expect everyone to take advantage of the opportunity though even if it is free. In San Antonio, Tex., for example, at the height of a recent diphtheria epidemic only about half of the population bothered to get immunizations even when they were offered free.

Please send your questions and comments to Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Lamb cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

ized coverage.

In an attempt to provide selling points their competitors lack, companies providing this insurance tend to dress it up with added trimmings. One promises to cover all members of the same family under one policy, for example. Another offers to see that new cards are issued to replace those you've lost.

Such additions to the basic coverage color the cost slightly, but you ought to be able to buy $5,000 worth of protection annually for about $10.

A unique service offers no insurance against loss at all. Instead, it agrees to accept a collect call from you anywhere in the world if you discover your cards missing. On such notification, the company promises that within minutes it will be issuing electronic cancellations of your lost cards and arranging for new ones. The service costs $9 a year.
